READING

Time: 30 minutes

Task 1. You are going to read about people, who are looking for a film to watch. Below are six film reviews. Decide which film, A-F, would be most suitable for these people.

1 Dawn loves thinking about the future. How will life be different? She's a huge fan of films that are set in a time many years from now. But she doesn't really enjoy films that are too frightening.

2 Paula's job is very boring so when she gets home she likes watching a good action film with lots of special effects, but she's not a fan of sci-fi. She also likes films with some exciting bits, too.

3 Keith is a romantic who enjoys a good love story but it must have a happy ending. He doesn't like serious films very much, and likes to have a laugh, too.

4 Lisa is not really a fan of fiction and only watches films about real life. She is interested in anything from history to nature to science as long as she learns something from it.

A THE INVISIBLE WORLD

Using the most advanced camera technology in the world, this documentary takes us to places that have never been filmed before. From deep under the sea to inside the human body, this film contains some of the most amazing images you will ever see.

D WILL THEY? WON'T THEY?

Ever since school, Jack and Jill have been best friends. But now they are in their twenties, and their feelings are changing. Is either of them brave enough to see that they are falling in love? Will they do something about it? Of course it is all OK in the end in this likeable but silly rom com.

B THE KING WHO NEVER WAS In 1936 Edward VIII decided to give up being king after less than a year so he could be with the woman he loved. This film revisits one of the most popular 'royal stories' of all time and mixes fact and fiction to create an interesting drama. It will keep audiences entertained but probably upset many historians.	E COUNTDOWN TO DISASTER A speeding train is going to crash into a nuclear power station and no one can stop it. Or can they? Special agent Ryan has got an hour to stop the disaster but there's a problem, he has a bomb tied around his waist. Car chases, explosions and amazing special effects - this thriller has got it all.
C IT COULD HAPPEN TO YOU Imagine waking up in a house that is not the house you went to sleep in. Imagine not recognising your children - even though they all seem to think you are their mum. This fascinating sci-fi takes us to a future world where people buy and sell memories.	F TOMORROW NOW The year is 2080 and for the last ten years Earth has been in contact with aliens. Today is the day that we finally welcome them to our planet. How will they change our lives and are they really as friendly as they seem? One of the scariest films you will see this year.

Task 2. Read the text and questions below. For each question, mark the correct letter A, B, C or D.

Somewhere in Africa

Seventeen-year-old Nadia Clarke talks about her African experience.

Last summer I got the chance to spend a month helping out in a hospital in Africa. I had one year left at school, and I was interested in studying medicine at university. I thought it was the perfect chance to get some experience and to see if I really wanted to be a doctor.

It was a month that changed my life. I was introduced to a world that is very different to mine in so many ways. I was horrified at how poor so many of the families over there are and how difficult their lives can be. But I was also amazed at how positively people go about their everyday lives. The way they come together and help each other is a real inspiration, and something I think a lot of us here in the UK have forgotten. I think many of us don't realise how lucky we are.

My work in the hospital was hard. I spent a lot of time cleaning floors and changing bed sheets, but I also got to spend some time looking after the patients. And I got the chance to talk to some doctors and ask them about the profession. I saw some truly awful things in the hospital, but none of them changed my mind about being a doctor. In fact, they only made me more determined to do medicine!

When I finish, I know exactly what I'm going to do: I want to work for an international organisation like the Red Cross or Medecins sans Frontieres and spend my life helping people overseas who haven't been as lucky in life as me. I can't wait to get started.

5 What is Nadia doing in the text?

- A Describing how to get work in a hospital.
- B Comparing hospitals in the UK and Africa.
- C Giving advice to people who want to be doctors.
- D Talking about an amazing experience she had.

6 What did Nadia notice most about people there?

- A How little money all of them had.
- B How friendly the people were to her.
- C How well they looked after each other.
- D How much they needed medical help.

7 How has the trip changed Nadia's ideas about her own future?

- A She doesn't want to be a doctor any more.
- B Now she definitely wants to be a doctor in the UK.
- C It's made her change a lot of her opinions.
- D Now she really knows what she wants to do with her life.

8 What might Nadia write home to her parents?

- A The doctors have been really kind here, but I'm not so sure it's what I want to do anymore.
- B The people are very friendly and I've made some really good friends.
- C It's been difficult, but I really want to work somewhere like this when I'm a doctor.
- D Sweeping floors and cleaning beds! I want to spend more time with the patients.
